A SONG FOR THE UNION.

Huzza for the Union forever; Like brothers, united we'll stand, And palsied the hand that would sever The States of this God-favored land.

Huzza for the Union for ever: Your hearts and your hands to it give, United there's none who can sever Our Union, —oh long may it live!

Then freemen, arise in your might,

Drive sectional discord away; May the stars on your banner be bright As the sun in meridian day.

Come, friends of your country, arise, Lend your sid in the glorious cause; Your motto exalt to the skies,— "The Constitution, the Union, and laws."

Wake friends of your country, awake; To the cause of the Umon be true; For your leaders pure patriots take; Vote for BELL and for EVERETT (00.

Then huzza for the Union forever; Let our flag proudly wave o'er the land: Not a star blotted out—oh no, never! But destined forever to stand.

NOW-A-DAYS. BY IL. A. Air -- Few days . Breathes there a soul on Freedom's soil.

Now-a-days, now-a-days, Who would be guiled by faction's broil?
Now-a-days, now.
Is there a freemen in the land, Now-a-days, now-a-days, Who would not spurn foul Treason's hand? Now-a-days, now. Choars-Men why do you slumber? Now-a-days, now-a-days,

Let's increase our numbers, Now-a-days, now. Let's up and at 'em with our band, Now-a-days, now-a-days, Stand by our Union, hand in hand, Now-a-days, now.

Let's guard it for the hands that wrought, Now-a-days, now-a-days, The land, for which our fathers fought, Now-n days, now. Let's rise and crush this traitorous plet, Freemen let us slumber not, Now-a-days, now, Now-a-days, now-a-days,

Let us grasp the fyrant power.7 Treamon's banner we must lower, Now-a-days, now. Let 'em threaten if they will, Now-a-days, new-a-days. Our flag is floating o'er us still, Now-a-days, now. Chonus.

Our Constitution and our laws, Now-a-days, now-a-days, Blot not a page or single clause, Now-a-days, now. Our Union let our motto be,
Now-a-days, now-a-days,
And the patriot Belt of Tennessee,
Now-a-days, now.
